

'Active Collaborative Learning for Student Success' Conference

Friday 28th June 2019, The Old Museum, Newton Building, Nottingham Trent University

| Time | Agenda | | |
|-------|---|--|--|
| 09:30 | Arrival, registration and refreshments Open Gallery/World Kitchen, Newton Building | | |
| 10:00 | Welcome Address Professor Eunice Simmons , Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic & Student Affairs, NTU | | |
| 10:10 | Outcome 1: project findings Active, collaborative learning reduces, and in some cases, removes gaps in student engagement, attainment and non-continuation Jane McNeil (Lead) , Executive Dean of Learning and Teaching, NTU Sharon Waller , Head of Learning and Teaching, Anglia Ruskin University Simon Tweddell , Associate Head of School, University of Bradford | | |
| 11:00 | Break | | |
| 11:15 | Outcome 2: active, collaborative learning at scale Considerations for adopting SCALE-UP and TBL at large scale, across an institution, including: Recruiting & supporting course teams, working with students, staff workload model, developing learning spaces, timetabling and space allocation, scalable educational development, building communities, maintaining accurate data for reporting, institutional wide support and visibility, evaluation and review. | | |
| 12.15 | Lunch, networking and exhibition Open Gallery, Newton Building | | |
| 13:15 | Addressing barriers to student success: A priority for higher education Kirsty Johnson , Access & Participation Manager, OfS and Programme Manager, Addressing Barriers to Student Success Programme | | |
| 13:45 | BME Attainment: Addressing barriers to student success Afua Acheampong , Vice President Education, Nottingham Trent Students Union | | |
| 14:05 | SCALE-UP Taster Session Lecture Theatre 7, Newton Building | TBL Taster Session Old Museum | Tour of NTU SCALE-UP rooms & networking Leaving from Old Museum / World Kitchen |
| 15:20 | Close | | |