

Innovative Pedagogy Taster Session

Karen Moss Rob Ackrill Catherine Gillam

Outcomes for today's workshop

- Chance to taste and see 5 different approaches used in pedagogic research
- At the end of session to have a better idea around

“Which pedagogic approach is right for me?”

and

Agree your next steps

World Cafe -a flexible format for facilitating large group dialogue

- 5 discussion topics each one related to an approach to conducting pedagogic research.

You can chose 4 tables to visit - you have 20 mins/ table

- The experts will spend the first 5-10 minutes or so explaining their methodology and you can ask them questions
- They will then facilitate a discussion using the prompts provided.
- Responses to these should be jotted down on the flip chart pad.

After 20 minutes you move to next table

After 4 rounds of exploration we will ask you to spend 15 minutes reflecting on what you have learnt and potential next steps before asking for some key learning points /next steps based.

The operators

Discussion Tables & Table Hosts

- Phenomenology - Dan Brown
- Ethnography - Daniel King
- Phenomenography - Jane Ching
- Research Ethics - Rob Ackrill
- Learning gain - James Leinster

Timings:

10.00-10.05 welcome & Intro KM & RA

10.05-10.25 Discussion 1

10.30-10.50 Discussion 2

10.55-11.15 Discussion 3

11.20-11.50 Discussion 4

11.55-12.15 Self-reflection and Next Steps

12.15-12.30 Harvest