

Where can a degree in Psychology and Education take me?

...allowing children to reach their full potential as a behaviour mentor

...protecting the vulnerable in family support

...onto a career in local government or the NHS in mental health support

...around the world with charity work and community projects

...running a nursery or children's centre

...into sales and marketing with communication, writing and presentation skills

...building relationships as a recruitment consultant

...helping others through social work

...back to school through teaching

Our graduates have gone on to successful careers in many of these areas.

Where do you want to go?

Some career areas may require additional qualifications.
