

December Graduation 2023

Nottingham Trent
University

History of NTU

1843

The Nottingham Government School of Design opens.

1881

University College Nottingham is established on Shakespeare Street. The premises eventually becomes NTU's Arkwright building.

1908

DH Lawrence receives his teaching certificate after studying in what is now known as the Arkwright building.

1970

The merger of several colleges creates Trent Polytechnic, which is later renamed Nottingham Polytechnic.

1992

Nottingham Polytechnic is granted university status. Professor Ray Cowell is appointed the first Vice-Chancellor of the new Nottingham Trent University (NTU).

2003

Professor Neil Gorman becomes NTU's second Vice-Chancellor.

2008

Sir Michael Parkinson is appointed NTU's first Chancellor.

2011

Sir David Attenborough officially opens the regenerated Newton and Arkwright buildings on the City Campus.

2014

Lord Sebastian Coe KBE officially opens NTU's new Students Union building on the City Campus.

Professor Edward Peck becomes the University's third Vice-Chancellor.

Kevin Cahill CBE is appointed NTU's second Chancellor.

2015

NTU receives the Queen's Anniversary Prize for Higher and Further Education. It is the highest national honour for a UK university and recognises the institution's world-class research.

2017

Sir John Peace becomes NTU's third Chancellor.

The University is awarded Gold in the government's Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) for delivering consistently outstanding teaching, learning and outcomes for students.

NTU is named Modern University of the Year in The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2018.

2018

NTU celebrates the 175th anniversary of its founding as the Nottingham Government School of Design.

2019

NTU is named University of the Year at The Guardian University Awards 2019.

NTU wins University of the Year at the UK Social Mobility Awards.

2020

NTU wins the Outstanding Support for Students award at the Times Higher Education Awards 2020 in recognition of the University's efforts to support local, national and international communities.

Vice-Chancellor and President, Professor Edward Peck is awarded a CBE in the New Year Honours list for Services to Higher Education.

2021

NTU's University Hall wins a prestigious restoration award from the Association for University Directors of Estates (AUDE).

2022

The Health and Allied Professions Centre opens at Clifton Campus – a specialist learning space for nursing and paramedical students, simulating a range of care scenarios and environments.

2023

NTU named Modern University of the Year by The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide.

NTU voted University of the Year and wins the Postgraduate award at the Whatuni Student Choice Awards.

The Princess of Wales visits our Clifton Campus to mark World Mental Health Day.

Welcome

As the Vice-Chancellor – the Chief Executive – of Nottingham Trent University (NTU), I want to congratulate you all on the occasion of your graduation.

Today is your day, and a time to reflect on your achievements. It is also a moment to recognise the people who have supported you along the way: your friends; your family members; and your tutors. They will be watching with pride, having invested so much in your journey.

I am proud of our University, just as I am proud of you. In previous graduation ceremonies, I have spoken about our recent successes: our 'University of the Year' awards; our internationally recognised research activities; and our vital contributions to the City and County that you have called home. This year I am pleased to be able to do so again. We are The Times / Sunday Times Modern University of the Year for 2023, as we were in 2018, and the WhatUni University of the Year 2023.

You are now members of our alumni community. Our doors remain open to all our graduates around the world. Keep in touch with us. Our support extends well beyond the completion of your course. As NTU alumni, you have access to dedicated employability support, as well as a range of exclusive events and networking opportunities.

As your careers gather pace, think too of the ways in which you could inspire future generations of students by joining our Alumni and Industry Fellowship Programme, offering guest lectures, mentoring, placement opportunities, and careers guidance. In time, you might choose to help fund our scholarships, bursaries, and research. Visit ntu.ac.uk/alumni for more details.

Today, however, is a time to focus on the present. We applaud your successes. We are excited for your futures. Congratulations again, and enjoy your graduation.

Professor Edward Peck CBE
Vice-Chancellor

Nottingham Trent University (NTU) is an outstanding institution, and one I am proud to serve as Chancellor. I echo Professor Peck's words in extending my heartfelt congratulations to all of today's graduands. I have felt great pride in witnessing the University's growth across the last two decades.

Special mention must also be reserved for the resilience our staff and students have shown throughout the challenges of the past four years. It is tribute to your character, care, and commitment that you have all achieved so much, and that the University has continued to develop its global reputation for excellence.

Through nationally recognised teaching, award-winning support services, and fantastic opportunities in and outside of the classroom, NTU offers a truly transformative experience to our students. Beyond our campuses, we continue to make vital economic, civic, and cultural contributions to the city, the region and the wider world. It is my belief that NTU's ideals – its commitment to social mobility, its pioneering world-changing research, and its 'sustainability-first' agenda – represent everything that a modern university can and should be.

Our ambitions for the future are clear: to continue enhancing the scope and scale of our impact; and to serve as an ever more powerful force for social good. Our students, friends, partners and you, our latest set of alumni, have important roles to play in achieving these goals.

Following today's celebrations, our hard work continues. I am encouraged by our progress and excited by the promise of our future.

Sir John Peace
Chancellor

Jermaine Jenas

Jermaine Jenas is a successful television presenter, football pundit and former professional footballer.

Born in Nottingham and raised in Clifton, it was with local club Nottingham Forest Jermaine began his professional footballing career, making his debut at the age of just 17. He moved to the Premier League with Newcastle United just a year later and earned his first senior England cap at 19.

Though hampered by serious injuries during his career, he continued playing for clubs at a top level, including Tottenham and Queens Park Rangers, and also enjoyed a return to Nottingham Forest.

Jermaine turned his attention to media work as a pundit while recovering from a knee injury and became a regular on BBC One's Match of the Day and at BT Sport. He has been presenting The One Show for the BBC since 2020, stating that live television provides a similar sense of pressure as performing on the pitch.

Away from the television screens, Jermaine is passionate about working with children and retains strong connections to his home city. He and a friend set up the Aquinas Foundation to help incentivise and raise the aspirations of young people in schools across Nottingham.

Isabelle Alexander

Isabelle is the creative talent and brain behind swim and beachwear brand In Capri.

She studied Fashion Management at Nottingham Trent University, graduating in 2016.

During her studies, Isabelle completed a successful internship at Curve New York, in a role that focused on lingerie and swimwear.

After graduating, Isabelle secured a role at Next as a Fashion Buyer. It was here that her passion for sustainable fashion grew, following her involvement in a project aimed at decreasing Next's use of non-recyclable polyester.

It was while on holiday that Isabelle had the idea for In Capri – a luxurious yet sustainable resortwear brand, inspired by how things should fit the body.

She left Next and officially launched In Capri in 2020. It has since grown in popularity, receiving 100% five-star reviews, selling globally, featuring in lifestyle and fashion magazines, and winning the Sustainable Business award by the Women's Business Club while also being voted Drapers Sustainable Fashion 'Ones to Watch'.

Dr Michael Auer

Dr Auer is a statistician and psychologist. He completed Masters degree in Psychology at Nottingham Trent University and Statistics at the University of Vienna, Austria.

He then undertook a PhD in Psychology with Professor Mark Griffiths at Nottingham Trent University.

Dr Auer has published more than fifty peer-reviewed articles in the area of online gambling on topics such as limit setting, personalised feedback, self-exclusion and pop-up messages.

This academic background, combined with Dr Auer's commercial experience of more than fifteen years in the gambling industry led to the development of a player tracking tool called 'mentor', which is currently used by dozens of online gambling operators across the world.

He is also a regular speaker at conferences and consults operators, regulators and policy makers around the globe.

Amdani Juma

Amdani Juma is chair of Nottingham Sports Group and a public health specialist.

Amdani came to the UK from Rwanda where he fled the genocide and spent several years volunteering for organisations such as Refugee Action and Nottingham and Nottinghamshire Refugee Forum.

Before setting up his own projects, Amdani’s passion to improve the health and lives of others led him to leave his role as an engineer and work with various organisations that support refugees.

These include the African Institute for Social Development (AISD), which is an HIV awareness and research project, the Nottingham Sports Group, and Sanctuary Nottingham, a self-help group for LGBT+ refugees.

Amdani set up Nottingham Sports Group to ensure there would be a lasting legacy from the 2012 Olympics. The group uses sports to improve health, wellbeing, fitness and relationships of the community in Nottingham and surrounding areas.

Lillian Malama

As Offender Manager Probation Service Learner for the National Probation Service in Nottingham, Lillian Malama was awarded the Order of the British Empire Medal (BEM) for her services to volunteering and the rehabilitation of offenders in the Queen’s New Year Honours 2022.

Lillian graduated from NTU in 2013 with a 2.1 in Criminology.

During her studies, she spent much of her spare time volunteering for organisations Sova and PACT.

Sova is a charity that works in the heart of the community to help people steer clear of crime and to live healthier lives. PACT stands for Prison Advice and Care Trust. Its mission is to support prisoners, people with convictions and their families to make a fresh start.

Following graduation, Lillian completed the tough, 21-month training process and qualified as a Probation Officer in April 2022.

Her role also involves helping the family and friends of offenders when they visit them in prison and providing practical and emotional support.

Lillian has also identified offenders who need support with literacy and has set up writing sessions and provided one-to-one support for those leaving the prison system with issues such as housing.

Dr Jane Rigbye

Jane is currently CEO of Ygam, an award-winning charity working to prevent children and young people from experiencing gaming and gambling harm.

She graduated from her BSc (Hons) Psychology degree at Nottingham Trent University in 2004.

In 2006, Jane began her PhD studies into Barriers to Treatment Access for Young Problem Gamblers. Under the supervision of Professor Mark Griffiths, she co-authored various academic papers on these topics.

Working with the charity GamCare to collect data for her studies, Jane was offered a position there in 2010 and set up the youth service BigDeal – the foundation for numerous services across the UK offering education in youth settings.

Jane achieved chartered psychologist status in 2013, and started work with GambleAware, where she was responsible for commissioning national treatment and education services to reduce gambling harms, including inclusions on the national PSHE curriculum.

In 2019, Jane was appointed a Fellow of the Royal Society of Public Health, and in 2022 she became the CEO of Ygam, where she continues to work to prevent children and young people from experiencing gaming and gambling harms through awareness raising, education and research.

Christian Weaver

Christian Weaver is a Barrister and founder of The Law in 60 Seconds, an initiative that aims to provide practical legal knowledge to the public.

He completed his undergraduate law degree and Bar Professional Training Course at Nottingham Law School, finishing the latter in 2016.

Christian has acted on high-profile legal cases and public inquiries and is ranked in both the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners.

He recently represented the family of two-year-old Awaab Ishak, whose untimely death resulted from prolonged exposure to mould in his home. The case has led to significant changes within social housing, most notably the creation of 'Awaab's Law,' aimed at fortifying tenant protections within social housing.

He was also instructed on the Manchester Arena bombing public inquiry, and is currently instructed on the COVID-19 public inquiry.

Christian was the UK's Youth Delegate to the Congress of the Council of Europe, where he led the internal human rights working group. In recognition of these exceptional contributions to the legal field, he was awarded Newcomer of the Year at the 2023 Legal Aid Lawyer of the Year Awards.

Outstanding Alumni Fellows

Julian Bond

Julian Bond is Head of IT at what was Hillarys Blinds, now part of the global Hunter Douglas group, where he has been developing award-winning IT infrastructure and support since 2006.

He moved to Nottingham in 1984 to study mechanical engineering, becoming a chartered engineer and working for Rolls-Royce. However, his passion for computing technology led him to take up a role as a systems analyst for the company.

Julian went on to work in IT roles for several large companies in the East Midlands.

He returned to university in 1996, choosing to study for his MBA in Business Information Management here at Nottingham Trent University.

Julian remains committed to supporting the university and our students – he joined the first cohort of NTU's Alumni and Industry Fellowship Programme to enhance the student experience and to help prepare them for the world of work. He continues to contribute as a guest lecturer, as well as chairing Nottingham Business School's postgraduate advisory board.

Rebecca Cassidy

Rebecca is a creative and solution-focused practitioner. She has provided personalised mental health support for children, young people and adults in both online and face-to-face settings across the voluntary, charitable and business sectors for the past 13 years.

Rebecca was a recipient of The Philip Lawrence Award in 2012. She graduated with a BA (Hons) in Youth Studies from Nottingham Trent University in 2016 and received the Outstanding Contribution to the Wider Community Award.

Rebecca is currently an emotional wellbeing practitioner at Kooth PLC, where she is a wellbeing champion contributing to published research around assisted moderation and works across the business to provide organisational improvements.

She is also an Alumni Fellow, delivering guest lectures on the subjects of young people's mental health, wellbeing, substance misuse, and mentoring. Rebecca also supports Nottingham Trent University at events promoting the study of psychology and different routes into the discipline.

In addition, Rebecca works with her secondary school, The Bulwell Academy, by providing advice and support for students through practice interviews and offering advice around employment via video interview.

Brian Fairchild

Brian Fairchild has over twenty-five years of experience in the training industry.

He is currently a Business and Career Coach at The Beeston Coach, providing training and coaching services to individual and corporate clients.

Brian has worked in a variety of roles in the private sector, civil service, voluntary sector and for both Nottingham City Council and Nottinghamshire County Council.

Since 2015, he has been an Alumni Fellow at Nottingham Trent University and is an active volunteer with a number of community organisations in Nottingham.

Brian studied Social Science Politics at the University of Leicester, an MA in International Relations at the University of Kent, and a Postgraduate Diploma in Personnel Management at Nottingham Trent University.

Duncan Hicks

Duncan Hicks is the Evolution Team Lead at Alstom and has spent his career in the fast-paced and ever-changing rail industry.

Duncan started his career in finance at British Rail and, following its privatisation, studied formal qualifications on day release to progress his career.

At just 22, he became a member of the finance management team lead in his division and continued to learn and adapt through subsequent changes as the company was taken over a further four times.

Duncan is an advocate of lifelong learning. As a previous student of NTU, gaining his MBA from Nottingham Business School in 2003, he now shares his experience working with our students through mentoring, taking part in the Thinkubator Challenge, and supporting the Communication and Leadership module.

Steve McKeown

Steve McKeown worked in civil engineering for more than 40 years, including 17 years as Managing Director of Whitehouse Construction.

During his career, he has worked for major organisations on incredible projects such as the Channel Tunnel.

Steve studied Mining Engineering at Nottingham Trent University in the early 1980s and returned to the university around 15 years ago, when he decided to study for his MBA.

He became involved in the Alumni and Industry Fellowship Programme and began mentoring Masters students by sharing his own experiences of studying and working. Through this, Steve has helped students with their studies, securing rich employment opportunities and supporting their self-development.

Now retired, Steve continues to mentor and support current Masters students at NTU.
