Course applied for:

I would like to apply for a School Scholarship

Tick this box if you would like to be considered for a School Scholarship (up to half fee).
All applications will be considered for the International Development Scholarship.

I would like to apply for a partner scholarship

Please choose the scholarship from the list below.

Visit www.ntu.ac.uk/internationalscholarships to find out if you are eligible.

Section Two – Your Scholarship Statement

This is your opportunity to tell us why you should be awarded a scholarship, how you will excel in your studies and the future benefits of studying at NTU.

Please write a statement that answers all three criteria below. You should write around 300 words for each section. Your statement should specifically relate to your scholarship. If you reuse your course application statement your application will not be considered.

To be considered for a School Scholarship (up to half fee) you need to demonstrate outstanding experience, achievements and ambitions for all three areas.

Why do you think you should be awarded a scholarship?

Tell us why you have chosen to study at NTU and why think you are a good candidate for one of our scholarships. You may want to tell us how your experiences will make you an excellent student academically and socially and the impact you will have on the University and it's student community. You should write around 300 words for this section.

Your potential for academic excellence

Demonstrate your potential for academic excellence by showing how your previous studies and experiences will help you to excel in your chosen course.

You may want to include some of the following or other examples:

- Results from previous qualifications, including individual module results where particularly relevant.
- Prizes and awards you have received.
- Any published work or articles (whether academic or non-academic).
- Presentations you have done including conference presentations.
- Achievements outside education.

You should write around 300 words for this section.

The benefits of your studies

Show how studying at NTU will benefit you, your career aspirations, future employers and the wider society. You may want to tell us about:

- Your future plans and ambitions.
- The career path you would like to follow
- How studying here will help you have a positive impact on society.

You should write around 300 words for this section.

Section three – Terms and Conditions

I confirm that the details given in this scholarship application form are accurate and I have read and understood the terms and conditions of the International Scholarship.

1. To be eligible for consideration of an international scholarship, applicants must:
 - a) have been offered a place on an eligible full-time postgraduate course (excluding MBA, GDL, LPC, BPTC and exchange students) and
 - b) be classed as overseas students for tuition fee purposes.

Please Note: NTIC progression students are not eligible to apply for a scholarship. Please check our website for details of funding for NTIC students at www.ntu.ac.uk/ntic.

2. Students who are sponsored by their employers, government or a funding body (full / part) are not eligible to apply for this scholarship award.
3. Applicants are only able to apply to the international scholarship once per academic year per offer of a place on a qualifying course.
4. There are several scholarship application deadlines:
September 2016 courses: 4 pm GMT 24 February 2016, 4 pm GMT 27 April 2016 and 4 pm 22 June 2016.
January 2017 courses: 4 pm GMT 19 October 2016, 4 pm GMT 16 November 2016.
5. If your application is received after one of the above deadlines it will be considered as submitted for the next deadline. Applications received after the final deadline will not be considered.
6. If you have been made an offer of a place to study on a one year full-time course scholarships up to a maximum of half the tuition fee are available.
7. The scholarship will be available in the form of a tuition fee reduction. If you are awarded a scholarship, your fee will be adjusted before you enrol on year one.
8. If you have been made an offer to study on a one year full-time course and you are awarded any other scholarship, bursary and/or fee reductions from the University, the maximum amount awarded will not exceed more than half the tuition fee.
9. The scholarship is not transferable and will not be awarded if you choose to defer your entry to a different academic year or if you choose to transfer to a different course at the University.
10. Applicants will be informed of whether they have (or have not) been awarded a scholarship (with the value of the scholarship award if they have been awarded) within three weeks of the application deadline dates.
11. The scholarship will only be awarded once an applicant accepts and meets the conditions of their offer, accepts their scholarship offer and is eligible to enrol on the postgraduate course.
12. Scholarships are competitive and selection is based on the information you provide on the application form. It is, therefore, of great importance that you give your personal statement careful thought and preparation and you refer to the criteria provided.
13. The University's decision in all matters relating to the scholarship is final.
14. The University reserves the right to revoke the scholarship if you leave the University before completing the programme.

16. If your scholarship application is successful, you may be asked to appear in online and / or printed University marketing materials. This may involve providing a student profile and a photograph which may be used to promote the University's scholarship schemes and postgraduate courses.

17. If you have been made an offer of a place to study on a two-year full-time Master's course which incorporates a year-long work placement, the maximum scholarship awarded will not exceed the value of half the year one tuition fee.

18. If you have been made an offer of a place to study on a two-year full-time Master's course which incorporates a year-long work placement and you are awarded any other scholarship, bursary and/or fee reductions from the University, the maximum amount awarded will not exceed the value of half the year one tuition fee.
