The Admissions Policy forms part of the University Academic Standards and Quality Handbook.

Equal Opportunities Mission Statement

Nottingham Trent University is committed to supporting, developing and promoting equality and diversity in all of its practices and aims to establish an inclusive culture, free from discrimination and based on the values of dignity and respect.

The University consequently seeks to build capability across the institution in the development of this inclusive culture and resolution of obstacles to equality.

To achieve this, the University will, in carrying out its activities, have due regard to:

- the promotion of equality of opportunity
- the promotion of good relations between different groups
- the elimination of unlawful discrimination.

All staff, students and visitors will be informed of the equal opportunities policy, and its operation will be subject to regular monitoring and review.

Important note

The University will make all reasonable endeavours to deliver the course of study in accordance with the description applied to it in the University's literature online and in print, for the academic year in which you begin the course. However the University shall be entitled to:

- make reasonable variations to the content and syllabus of the course
- discontinue the course or decide not to provide the course or to merge or combine the course with other courses of study, if such action is reasonably considered to be necessary by the University in the context of its wider purposes.

In addition, the University shall not be liable for any failure to provide the course and any other services if it is unable to do so by reason of any matter beyond its control.

"The tutors are very supportive and will always try their best to help you."
