

Global Summer School 2024

15 - 26 July

Applications are open now!

Writing in the Style of Jane Austen - 10cps

Content

Whether you're an enthusiastic newcomer to her timeless written work, or an ardent Janeite, this short course offers a unique opportunity to add your own imagination to the fascinating enigma of Jane Austen and the charm of her very 'English' novels. You'll learn about her history, explore her much-loved characters, and delve into Georgian society.

The very 'English' style of Jane Austen's work and the Georgian period are timeless. Her novels have gained significant popularity throughout the years and continue to do so.

This course is about understanding Jane Austen's literary classics but also includes a creative writing element as you will use this new knowledge to write in Jane Austen's style.

During the course you will:

- Read and analyse a selection of Jane's work and take on the point of view of one of her characters to produce your own written piece in her style to share with the group
- Learn new literary skills
- Produce, format, and present a piece of written work for an audience.
- Visit Chawton House or Bath – two of the places that Jane Austen lived and where she wrote her most famous novels.

Teaching methods: lectures, presentations, quizzes, workshops, and research trips.

Assessment: written presentation of your project work.

“ Olivia - I liked all of the opportunities for inspiration with our trips. I liked learning about Georgian society and writing my novella. I also liked how I had the opportunity to expand my vocabulary to an older form of English.

NTU Global Summer School 2024
Application Form

“ Ceilidh - This course gave us the best experience of England we possibly could have had!

This course is ideal for university-level students with a passion for English Literature and the work of Jane Austen. You will need good English language skills, particularly in reading and writing.