

CBJ Courses

Journalism Courses at Nottingham Trent

Undergraduate

- Three year courses.
- BA (Hons) Broadcast Journalism
- BA (Hons) Journalism
- Placement after second year

Postgraduate

- 12 months long.
- Classes from October – June
- Major project over the summer months + placement

Postgraduate

- MA in Broadcast Journalism
- MA in Digital and Newspaper Journalism
- MA in Magazine Journalism
- MA in Documentary

Journalism.

Why come to CBJ?

Fabulous facilities!

What the students say:

Award winning courses

Best Performing Undergraduate Course 2015 for the fourth year in a row.

Award winning students

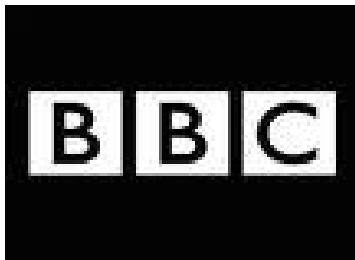

Emma Hubbard:
Best Documentary
at NSP 2015.

Georgiana
Scurfield Best
Student News
Item at BJTC 2015

CBJ Consortium

- Work with industry

Working with CBJ students Features Placements

Notts TV

Launched May 2014. Now on Sky, Virgin and Freeview. Two hours of news live from CBJ studios every night

CBJ and Notts TV

- First-hand experience.
- Work placements.
- Third year pathway.

Industry Recognition

BA Journalism, MAs
in Digital and Newspaper
Journalism and Magazine
Journalism all accredited.

Industry Recognition

Broadcast Journalism accredited – regarded as ‘the gold standard’ of university courses.

Experienced staff

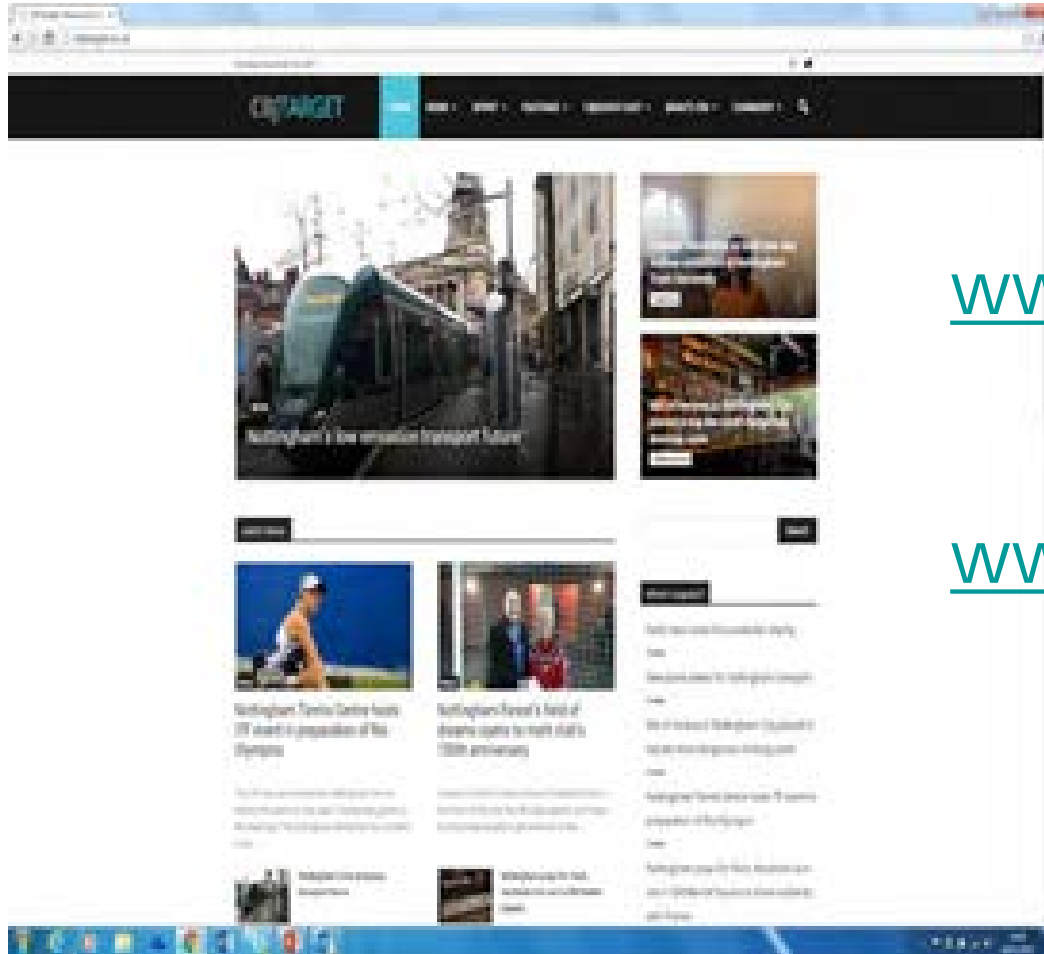

Staff have industry experience they can pass on to students

Multiplatform journalism

Media in the 21st century – all trained
for converged future.

CBJ Online

www.cbjtarget.co.uk

www.cbjspotlight.co.uk

Journalism at CBJ.

- Media law.
- Government structures.
- Sociology.
- Practical skills.

Journalism at CBJ

Practical teaching replicates the industry.

Multipatform Project

- Feature for print/radio/TV
 - In-depth research essay
 - Online version of the feature
 - Allows specialisation
 - Skills + knowledge together
-

Documentary Journalism

- New in 2015: journalism and business.
 - Skills in production and post production.
 - Led by award-winning producer.
-

What you need.

- IELTS 7.0
- Equivalent to 320 UCAS points (BA)
- Good first degree (2:1 or above) for MA.

The process.

- Keen interest in journalism.
- Personal statement to show previous experience.
- Any student media experience.