Future You Graduate Video

You're talented

Why does graduate employability matter?

- 57% of undergraduates are confident about securing a graduate role after university (Bright Report 2018)
- 48% of undergraduate finalists are still in the “decide” stage of their career thinking (HEFCE Learning Gain Project)
- 71% of graduate roles are open to any discipline (HECSU 2018/19)
- 35% feel their background has hindered them in an application for work or academic study (Bright Report 2018)
- 62% of working graduates on a permanent/open ended contract 6 months after leaving...meaning 38% aren't (HECSU 2018/19)
- A UK worker will change employer every 5 years on average (LV)
- Average of 6 job role changes across 6 employers (AAT)

What was your experience?

Employability in numbers:

DLHE 2018:

Positive Outcomes = 96.6%

Graduate Outcomes = 82.9%

Graduate Outcomes Survey:

July 2018 graduates will be surveyed in September 2019

Alumni Survey 2018 (4,581 responders)

Main reason for staying in touch with the University after graduation:

- 44% - Career Support
- 51% - Access to Online Courses

Go be amazing

Future You Online Activity

- As a table navigate the best resources for your individual Scenario
- Consider – what would be going through their mind? How do they find the information? Is this helpful? What is missing?

Scenario 1:

Joe graduated in May 2019 BSc Psychology. He is feeling overwhelmed (anxious) about his next steps and doesn't know what career he should pursue.

What resources on Future You Online can support him?

Scenario 2:

Mohammed graduated in May 2017 BA Business Management and Economics. In his final year, he secured a graduate job as an Operations Coordinator for Nottingham City Council.

Mohammed wants to seek a new job within the same field of Operations but doesn't know where to look.

What resources on Future You Online can support him?

Scenario 3:

Hannah graduated in December 2016 MA Media and Globalisation. For the last two years Hannah has been working as a Digital Marketing Coordinator. She would like to progress to becoming a Manager, but would like to undertake some online training courses to support her future applications.

What resources on Future You Online can support her?

It's not time to say goodbye
