The University reserves the right to discontinue the Santander Summer Schools Scholarship scheme at any time without prior notice. The terms and conditions associated with the scheme are contained within this document. Any questions should be sent to Faye Martin at summerabroad@ntu.ac.uk

If, in the reasonable opinion of NTU, you have failed to provide us with all relevant information or have supplied false or misleading information relating to your application, we shall be entitled to cancel your place on the scheme.

Notification of any changes

A change in your circumstances may affect your entitlement to the Santander Summer Schools Scholarship Scheme or the award amount. Please therefore inform NTU Global immediately should any of the following changes, or any other changes not listed here that impact on your funding status, occur:

- Deferral/Suspension of studies / Withdrawal from studies / Transfer out from NTU to another institution;
- Any changes to the submitted Summer School;
- No longer able to undertake your Summer School course.

The NTU Global Office will review any changes and will advise you if your change in circumstance has affected your award. Where a change in circumstances has resulted in an award being reduced or withdrawn and a transfer of the bursary has already been made, you will be required to repay funds within 15 working days.

Additional information

- NTU reserves the right to not award an otherwise eligible student when the University feels there is a significant risk posed to the student by the student's proposed international experience project plan;
- If, in the reasonable opinion of NTU, you have failed to provide us with all relevant information or have supplied false or misleading information relating to your application, we shall be entitled to seek full reimbursement from you - the Student Code of Behaviour may be invoked, and disciplinary action may be taken against you.
- The University reserves the right to discontinue the Santander Summer School Scholarships Scheme at any time without prior notice. The associated terms and conditions are contained within this document.

Any questions should be sent to Faye Martin at summerabroad@ntu.ac.uk

Data Protection Statement

*Nottingham Trent University ("the University") is a Data Controller in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. The University will use the information you provide in these forms to process your application to the Santander Student Mobility Scholarship. At the application stage the information you provide will be used only to consider your application for the scholarship.

Should your application be successful, the University will share information you have provided on your application form with Santander Universities which will identify you as a recipient to Santander (including photographs taken at celebration events). In addition, you confirm consent to sharing any celebration stories that you provide to the University whether you provide these through the celebration event organised by the University, through blogs or other written articles.

The information shared with Santander Universities will be used by them to analyse the impact of the scholarship. You may be contacted by Santander directly with a request for further information about the scholarship and how it has benefitted you.

The University does not share the information you have provided with any other third parties, however, external auditors are obliged to certify that University funds have been allocated in accordance with the relevant guidelines. As part of this process, auditors may wish to view a small sample of application forms.

You may exercise your rights of access to information by submitting your request to the University and/or Santander UK Plc.

By completing and submitting an application for a Santander Summer School Scholarship you are agreeing that you understand and accept the full terms and conditions of the scheme as presented here.
