3.5 Student will receive written confirmation of their entitlement to an NTU Estranged Student Bursary from the University's Student Financial Support Service.

3.6 The first payment will be released once the application has been approved and evidence has been verified, provided the student has completed their enrolment and activated their NTU student ID card. Payment will not be released before the start of the academic year.

4. Payment of the £1000 cash award

4.1 The overall amount of NTU Estranged Student Bursary payable to a student for the academic year will be split into two instalments. Eligible students will receive a notification letter each academic year, advising of the dates of payment

4.2 The NTU Estranged Student Bursary will be paid directly into the student's bank account. Payment will usually be made by the Student Loans Company, on behalf of the University, using the account details supplied by the student to the Student Loans Company. Payment will be made directly to the student by the University if a student is not in receipt of Student Finance from the Student Loans Company.

5. Payments in subsequent years

5.1 A student who has been assessed as eligible to receive a NTU Estranged Student Bursary in 2023/24 will remain eligible to receive a NTU Estranged Student Bursary each year for the duration of their course, subject to their remaining fully enrolled and in attendance on their course.

5.2 Foundation degree students awarded a 2023 entry NTU Estranged Student Bursary will remain eligible for the 2023 entry NTU Estranged Student Bursary if they return to study a 'top-up' undergraduate degree at NTU in a related subject in the academic year following the completion of their foundation degree. The NTU Estranged Student Bursary will be paid subject to their continued full-time attendance and enrolment on the 'top-up' undergraduate degree course and their eligibility for the tuition fee loan and maintenance loan.

5.3 Students will not receive the NTU Estranged Student Bursary during any year-long work placement as part of a sandwich degree.

6. Effects of changes in a student's status after a NTU Estranged Student Bursary has been awarded

6.1 The University reserves the right to review and (at its sole discretion) revise or revoke the award of an NTU Estranged Student Bursary in certain circumstances.

- Deferral/Suspension of Studies If the student suspends or defers his/her studies (with the approval of the University and in accordance with the relevant University procedures) part way through a year, no further bursary payments will be released during, or in respect of the period of suspension / deferral. Upon resumption of studies, entitlement to the NTU Estranged Student Bursary will usually be reinstated subject to the student meeting the necessary criteria for the NTU Estranged Student Bursary in the academic year of his/her return.

- Withdrawal If the student's studies are terminated (by the student or the University) part way through an academic year, the Estranged Student Bursary will be cancelled and no further bursary payments will be released.

- Change of course / mode of study If a student transfers to another course at NTU or changes their mode of study, his/her entitlement to an NTU Estranged Student Bursary will be reviewed and the NTU Estranged Student Bursary may be withdrawn.

7. Miscellaneous provisions

7.1 Students are obliged to inform the University immediately of any change in their circumstances (including but not limited to those in these terms and conditions) which may affect their entitlement to receive the NTU Estranged Student Bursary. In the event of a failure by the student to notify the University promptly of any such changes, the University will be entitled to recover or adjust (as appropriate) any associated Bursary cash payment.

7.2 If the initial assessment confirming eligibility for the NTU Estranged Student Bursary was made on the basis of information which was false or materially incorrect at the time of that assessment and thus had the effect of erroneously securing an NTU Estranged Student Bursary for the student, the NTU Estranged Student Bursary will be cancelled and no further bursary payments will be released;

7.3 The University shall also be entitled to recover or adjust any NTU Estranged Student Bursary benefit given in error.
