

NTU is officially the most sustainable university in the UK.

A Sustainable Academy is building global-citizens and changing the world with big ideas.

World-class campuses team with green buildings, green spaces and the best infrastructure.

We are connecting with our community and challenging ourselves to lead by example.

Click on the images to find out more.

ntu.ac.uk/sustainability

environment.team@ntu.ac.uk

 @NTUEnvironment

 facebook.com/NTUSustainability

A Sustainable Academy is building global-citizens and changing the world with big ideas.

Leading the sector in Education for Sustainable Development.

Turning Nottingham into a test-bed for carbon reducing technologies through our huge Future Cities project.

Nine research groups with a sustainability focus across 4 of our 5 schools.

Cutting consumption through smarter design with UK INDEMAND.

Working with over 348 NTU courses to audit and improve sustainability content.

Our Green Leaders are leading the way for enterprising student projects.

Our allotment grows vegetables for donation to local charities with Foodshare.

The Sustainability Action Forum brings together staff from every academic school.

Driving responsible corporate practice in Nottingham Business School.

Taking a multidisciplinary approach to sustainable building design research with iSBET.

336 students completed Sustainability In Practice in 2015-16.

Finding better ways to farm and conserve nature together at Brackenhurst.

World-class campuses team with green buildings, green spaces and the best infrastructure.

3 BREEAM 'Excellent' buildings, including a new carbon negative hub at Clifton, and many more expected.

1 plan to reduce our carbon emissions by 48% by 2020.

1.2 million viewers watched the Peregrine Falcons rear 4 chicks in 2015/16.

Recycling more than 90% of all waste

40% is sorted on site.

3 green roofs.

Internationally recognised Environmental Management System (ISO14001).

Silver Food for Life award for sustainable sourcing of ingredients in NTU catering >10% local >10% organic.

Our Greening the City initiative is transforming areas from grey to green space.

Solar PV installations at all 3 campuses are generating 350Kw.

2 green flag awards recognise the quality of our green spaces.

43% of commuters use public transport, 30% cycle or walk, 27% drive to NTU.

We are connecting with our community and challenging ourselves to lead by example.

815 student volunteers and 561 staff helped 191 local charities in the last year alone.

£504,000 spent on Fairtrade products at NTU this year.

Providing expert small business support through the Hive and award winning Future Factory.

Supporting local businesses to reduce their carbon footprint using student expertise.

102 tonnes of clothes, books and household items donated to the British Heart Foundation.

1 of 17

Founding Members of worker's rights organisation Electronics Watch.

A regular market to connect students with local social enterprises.

Green Impact tasks completed by staff teams, to bring sustainability into the office saved at least 38,992kg CO².

Working with 180 businesses to ensure we spend our money with sustainable suppliers.

21,349 local school pupils reached through NTU outreach activities.

