

TILT Course Leader Conference – working in partnership with students

16 May 2017, Chaucer Building, NTU city site

08:30	Registration & breakfast Level 2 in front of CPLD Suite, Chaucer			Marketplace - all day
09:20–10:15	Welcome Address Professor Edward Peck, Vice-Chancellor Student engagement Jelena Matic, VP Education, Nottingham Trent Students' Union Conference overview Professor Eunice Simmons, Deputy Vice-Chancellor Lecture Theatre 1, Chaucer
10:25 – 11:25	Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3	Marketplace: displays and stalls available all day CPLD Suite, Level 2 Chaucer
	Staff and students co-creating the curriculum, co-shaping the learning experience. Stuart Jolly, Course Leader - BSc Coaching and Sport Science, Cristina Montiel-Duarte, Senior Lecturer in Bio-chemistry, SST Lecture Theatre 1	Person centred (student) partnerships. Real stories from NTU students. Jelena Matic, NTSU Vice President Education, and Rebecca Machin, Team Leader, Confetti Lecture Theatre 4	Taking the next steps to support low engaged students. Ed Foster, Student Engagement Manager, CADQ, and Alastair Allen, Course Leader – BA (Hons) Business Management & Marketing, NBS CHR 2702
11:25	Coffee Break Level 2 Chaucer: in front of CPLD Suite and CHR 2703
11:40 – 12:40	Workshop 4	Workshop 5	Workshop 6
	Students consulting on teaching and technology enhanced learning. Emily Parkin, Senior Student Engagement Coordinator, University of Lincoln, and Lincoln Students' Union Officers Lecture Theatre 1	Students co-designing, co-delivering to support and inspire the next generation – case studies from NTU and Birmingham City University Kerry Gough, Learning and Teaching Consultant, CPLD, and Lucy Judd, Outreach Coordinator, SCCO, and students Lecture Theatre 4	Creative learning spaces. Kevin Love, Senior Lecturer, Politics and International Relations, and Ann Liggett, Learning and Teaching Coordinator, SSS, and students CHR 2702
12:40	Lunch Level 2 Chaucer: in front of CPLD Suite and CHR 2703
13:20	Explore the marketplace - a chance to learn more and discuss your questions and needs in various areas including student engagement, curriculum refresh, learning resources, etc.
13:50 – 14:50	Keynote— working in partnership with students to transform and enrich learning and teaching experiences Luke Millard, Head of Centre for Excellence and Teaching, Birmingham City University (introduced by Kerry Gough, Learning and Teaching Consultant, CPLD) Lecture Theatre 1, Chaucer

15:00-16:30	World Café discussions CHR 2604, 2702, 2703 (Tea and cake served in each table) World Café table themes Inclusive practices Personalisation approach Students co-designing the curriculum Student mentors and ambassadors Student forum + good practice from NTU Schools	Marketplace: displays and stalls available all day CPLD Suite, Level 2 Chaucer
16:30	Course leader networking

Get this on your device:

<https://tinyurl.com/mo3xyja>