

Welcome to Nottingham Trent University

This guide will help you find your way around the Clifton Campus, home to the School of Arts and Humanities, Nottingham Institute of Education, and the School of Science and Technology. It is a walking tour of the campus; just follow the red route around the University. Where the line is dotted on the map, it is hidden behind buildings; carry on walking along the path to continue the route. The described tour starts at the Pavilion building at the heart of Clifton Campus. The numbered dots relate to the text around the map and describe the main buildings of the University. While walking around the campus, why not drop into one of the coffee bars for a break, and maybe chat to some current students?

Our Clifton Campus is very typical of a greenfield site, in that all the teaching areas, support services, accommodation, Students' Union and other amenities are together in one place. The campus has recently undergone a significant regeneration programme. An impressive new interdisciplinary STEM Teaching and Engagement Centre, plus further investment in Engineering teaching facilities, have recently been developed.

For information on NTU open days, go to: www.ntu.ac.uk/opendays

Fire evacuation: in the unlikely event of a fire, on hearing the alarm please leave the building and assemble outside with staff and students.

1 Pavilion and Teaching and Learning building

The Pavilion is the central building for students at Clifton Campus, offering flexible and contemporary study spaces in a relaxing social environment. The Employability team are also based here. Adjoining the Pavilion is the Teaching and Learning building, featuring three lecture theatres and ten flexible meeting rooms set up for modern teaching methods with the latest audio-visual equipment. It also features a covered terrace and glazed facade to match the Pavilion. Staff on the main reception will be happy to answer any questions.

2 Ada Byron King building

This building houses Primary Education courses and contains well-equipped teaching resources. It is also home to the Nottingham Institute of Education office.

3 Interdisciplinary STEM Teaching and Engagement Centre (ISTEC)

The Interdisciplinary STEM Teaching and Engagement Centre (ISTEC), is due for completion in late 2017. This impressive facility is the result of a £5m investment from the government, and will contain state-of-the-art laboratories for teaching. It is where engineering practical and workshop sessions will initially be held.

4 John Clare Lecture Theatre

This building contains lecture theatres for Clifton students.

5 CELS / NSRC building

Our Natural Sciences Research Facility supports and enhances the School of Science and Technology's research in physics, biosciences, chemistry, imaging, materials and sport.

The facility houses laboratories to support these specialist disciplines, together with office space dedicated to researchers and research students.

17 Mary Ann Evans building

The Mary Ann Evans building is the hub for Arts and Humanities students. It houses the School office, language resource centre and media laboratories. It is where the majority of their courses are taught. It also contains Computing and Technology laboratories for the School of Science and Technology students, and is home to the Clifton Global Lounge.

16 DH Lawrence building

This forms part of Clifton's student village, along with the Benenson building, and houses the campus shop. Here you'll also find our main Students' Union reception area – the place to go to access the Student Advice Centre, the JobShop, RAG fundraising, societies, and other Students' Union activities.

15 New Hall – Hall of Residence

This purpose-built residence houses 576 en suite bedrooms in flats, and 151 studio-style rooms. Unfortunately, on unaccompanied tours it is not possible to see a room. For further information on University accommodation, please pick up a booklet from main reception (R), or visit: www.ntu.ac.uk/accommodation

14 The Benenson building (The Point)

The Point houses two bars, a coffee shop, diner, games room, and a nightclub with two dance-floors. Many events are held in The Point, including Clifton's main student night every Friday, as well as poster sales, quiz nights, sports club socials and daytime student activities.

13 The Student Services Centre

This is home to the Student Support Services; Credit Control, Finance and the Sunrise Medical Centre. You are welcome to browse the range of informational literature about the University's support provision for students, including financial support and advice; counselling; transition support; advice for mature students and care leavers; support services for dyslexia and other specific learning difficulties; support for students with mental health difficulties; and support for disabled students. The Wellbeing Centre is also based here.

12 Lionel Robbins building

This is part of the Nottingham Institute of Education. Courses in Childhood Studies, Educations Studies, Joint Honours in Education and Masters courses are taught here.

11 Anthony Nolan building

Our groundbreaking research facility offers a lifeline to thousands of patients with life-threatening illnesses. The facility has been funded by a £1.4m donation from the East Midlands Development Agency, and leads a campaign by Anthony Nolan to bank 50,000 cord blood samples suitable for transplantation and research.

10 Peverell – Hall of Residence

Peverell halls of residence houses 720 single study bedrooms. Unfortunately on unaccompanied tours it is not possible to see a room. For further information on University accommodation, please pick up a booklet from the main reception (R), or visit: www.ntu.ac.uk/accommodation

9 Clifton Library

We've recently created a stunning new entrance for Clifton Library. The redevelopment sees the culmination of two years of refurbishment works, which have transformed the library into a bright and spacious place, and can be found next to the very heart of the campus.

6 Rosalind Franklin building

This building houses our Superlab in which up to 200 Chemistry, Bioscience and Forensic students can have lab sessions simultaneously. It is considered to be one of the best teaching labs in the UK.

7 Erasmus Darwin building

This can be identified by the mammoth sculpture outside the main entrance. Science courses are taught in this building. At the rear of the building is the Interdisciplinary Biomedical Research Centre and the John van Geest Cancer Research Centre.

8 Lee Westwood Sports Centre

Our sports centre provides students with a fantastic venue for a variety of sporting and fitness activities. Facilities include a gym, sports hall, dance studio, squash courts and a brand new Tennis Centre, with four tennis courts and spectator seating. Information on sports clubs and fixtures can be found here.

The clubhouse is located behind the Lee Westwood Sports Centre. This new facility serves the 3G football pitch, the hockey pitch, tennis courts and lacrosse pitch, providing changing rooms and a social area.

Welcome to Nottingham Trent University

Welcome! We're one of the largest universities in the UK, attracting students from around the world. Our total student population is approximately 28,000, and we remain one of the most popular universities in the country in terms of applications received.

We believe our national and international reputation is built upon the excellence of our teaching methods, research, collaborative activities and consultancy.

Statistics show that 96% of our graduates* are employed or engaged in further study six months after graduating. We're in the top 10 universities in the UK for the number of students taking year-long work placements. Our strong record in ensuring student employability and flourishing links with industry mean that we have made our mark as an entrepreneurial university.

About Nottingham

Nottingham is a brilliant, student-friendly place to live. It's one of the top shopping destinations in the UK, it's big on culture, sports, live music, and has great nights out. With one in ten of Nottingham's population being students, the city is geared towards providing for your needs. Whether you enjoy eating out, sport, cinema, art galleries, clubbing, museums, pubs, comedy clubs or theatres, Nottingham will have something for you.

→ A cultural city

Nottingham is renowned as a thriving cultural centre and boasts the Motorpoint Arena, Theatre Royal, Royal Concert Hall and Nottingham Playhouse. The popular Broadway Cinema in the Hockley area of Nottingham shows independent and world cinema.

→ A historic city

Nottingham is steeped in history and has an array of galleries and museums. Nottingham Castle, famous from the tales of Robin Hood, is now the city's main art gallery and museum. The Nottingham Contemporary houses a series of popular art exhibitions. Nottingham's museums include the award-winning Galleries of Justice, Green's Windmill and Wollaton Hall.

→ A great night out

In October 2016, and for the seventh year running, the city was awarded a Purple Flag – the national indicator of where to go for a good night out. Whether you enjoy gigs, comedy nights, classical concerts, pubs or clubbing, you'll be spoilt for choice in Nottingham. You'll also find that many entertainment venues offer reduced prices for students with their NUS card.

→ A sporting city

Nottingham has more sporting facilities per head than any other European city! Nottingham is home to the National Ice Centre, the National Water Sports Centre, Trent Bridge Cricket Ground, Nottingham Tennis Centre, and two league football grounds (Nottingham Forest and Notts County).

→ Culinary delights

The city offers cuisine from around the globe, so whatever you enjoy, you will always be able to find somewhere that meets your needs. It is also home to many pubs and bars, including Ye Olde Trip to Jerusalem, which claims to be England's oldest pub.

→ Shopping heaven

The city's consistently ranked as one of the UK's top shopping destinations. All the major high street names sit happily alongside designer boutiques (Vivienne Westwood and Paul Smith to name but two) and vintage treasure warehouses.

Travelling to Nottingham Trent University's Clifton Campus

🚗 By car

Nottingham is at the heart of the country, and is well served by the motorway network. The M1 passes close to the west of the city, the A42 / M42 link to the south-west of the city, and the A1(M) to the east of the city. The Clifton Campus is located on the A453 Clifton Lane. When using the M1 for Clifton Campus, exit at Junction 24 and follow the A453 for approximately five miles. From the city centre, follow signs out to the A453 (signposted to Birmingham).
