International Summer Schools – explore Law from a new perspective

All Law students can take part in our International Summer School Scheme and spend a week exploring a specific legal topic in Europe.

Visits currently include:

- Strasbourg: EU Law, Human Rights
- Geneva: International Humanitarian Law
- Geneva II: Sports and the Law
- Berlin: International Criminal Justice Law

"The programme is a once-in-a-lifetime experience that I would recommend to everybody."

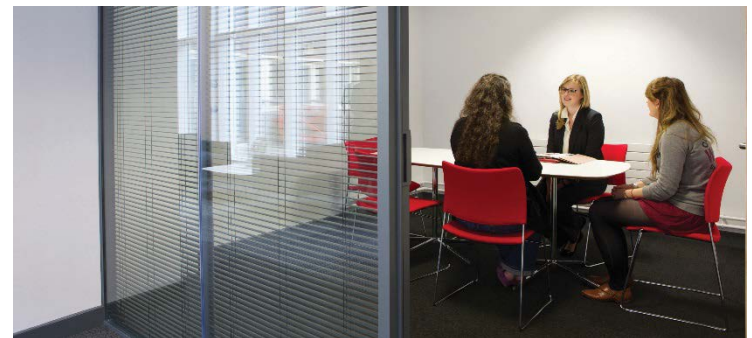

Aleksandra Kaminska Strasbourg Summer School attendee

Award-winning pro bono scheme

As well as giving something back to the community, pro bono work helps you to develop valuable practical skills.

You could get involved with:

- Legal Advice Centre
- Free Representation Unit
- Miscarriage of Justice Project
- Clinical Legal Education Modules
- Community Outreach Services
- Streetlaw™ and Prison Education Project

"I am very lucky and proud to be part of something as rewarding as this. In a world where seemingly everything costs money, it is refreshing how such an important service is provided to the community completely free of charge."

Katie Percival - Team Leader Community Outreach Service at Netherfield Community Centre
