ABOUT 3MT: 3-Minute Thesis was developed by the University of Queensland in Australia, to celebrate the exciting research conducted by PhD students. It is a competition which cultivates student's presentation and research communication skills. Explaining research in 3 minutes to a general audience is not easy and requires lots of skills development and practice. RULES: Competitors are allowed just 1 Powerpoint slide but no other resources or props. PTO for full rules!

TRAINING
