

NTU Cancellation Form – Academic Course of Study

The University is legally obliged to inform you that under The Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 you have a statutory 14-day right of cancellation, after the date you accepted a conditional or unconditional place on your course.

Please note you can also cancel your place at any point up until the course start date without any financial penalties relating to your course fees.

The quickest, and easiest, way to cancel your place is to email us at applications@ntu.ac.uk or alternatively you can use the form (below) and return it by post or email it to us:
