Connecting and Tracking

- For trackers and wearables FAQs please see <https://openplay.net/moves-faqs/>
- Moves+ can only provide points for the information pulled in from the tracker and these may vary marginally across tracking apps/devices. Where possible, we will always round-up.
- There may be some cases where trackers fail to connect with Moves+. Although we always do our best to resolve these issues via troubleshooting guidance, any absolute failure to connect is not always attributed to Moves+ and we cannot accept responsibility for the failure to connect in these cases.
- Please note that not all trackers have the ability to track swimming - Apple Health needs Apple Watch, Strava and Google Fit require a waterproof phone, Fitbit, certain models which allow for Swimming and GPS capability. Withings does not record distance or GPS data and therefore Moves+ is unable to read swimming from these devices. Please see <https://openplay.net/moves-faqs/> for further details.

User Survey and personal data:

- The user survey is compulsory at registration. It is a condition of your use of NTU Moves that all the information you provide is correct, current, and complete.
- All personal data in connection with NTU Moves will be kept in accordance with Open Play's privacy policy - <https://openplay.net/moves-privacy/>

Rewards:

- We will always endeavour to keep rewards up until their finish date, however, we reserve the right to remove rewards before their finish date if stock levels are depleted, or the item becomes no longer available, or unable to distribute safely.
- If a reward has no stock, then it will no longer be available. All rewards are subject to change throughout the year based on availability.
- Rewards must be redeemed within the active date.
- There may be a reward buffer (limit to the total number of times a reward can be redeemed within a set timeframe). We reserve the right to change the number of times a reward is available to a user and also the timeframe for which the buffer is active.
- Merchant claim: rewards should only be redeemed at the point of sale with a member of staff present. If rewards are redeemed any earlier the reward claim will not be valid. Rewards and instructions on how to redeem are detailed on the app. Type of Merchants and where you reward can be used is also stated on the app.
- Discount claim – on claiming the reward a unique code will be revealed. Instructions will be given on how to claim your reward. Users must only use a code once and must present this code as per instructions on the NTU Moves app. Codes are presented to the merchant when redeeming. The code will not remain on the app once presented.
- If a reward is incorrectly/mistakenly redeemed the associated points will not be reimbursed to the user. Once a reward is redeemed, it cannot be undone.
- We reserve the right to increase the points associated with each reward without notice. This is due to price inflation at the time of purchasing stock.
- We will always endeavor to keep rewards up until their finish date, however we reserve the right to remove rewards before their finish date if stock levels are depleted.

Groups and Challenges:

- Private groups: we reserve the right to delete groups or block a group's creator if there are examples of inappropriate content within a private group.
- Private group goals: we reserve the right to limit the number of private group goals available.
- You can only join one type of challenge at the same time. For example, the platform will prevent you from competing in two walking challenges at the same time. This is to ensure that users are not gaining bonus points across two challenges when they have only logged one instance of an activity.

- If a user syncs their activity after the end date of a challenge, we cannot retrospectively add that activity to a challenge.
- We urge you to only join public groups that are relevant to you, including any respective challenges within that group.

We may revise these Terms of Use from time to time. These changes will not be retroactive, and the most recent version of the Terms of Use will be binding. Your continued use of NTU Moves will constitute your acceptance of any amended terms.
