

Where can a degree in Early Years and Education take me?

...back to school through teaching

...helping others through social work

...allowing children to reach their full potential as a behaviour mentor

...running a nursery or children's centre

...protecting the vulnerable in family support

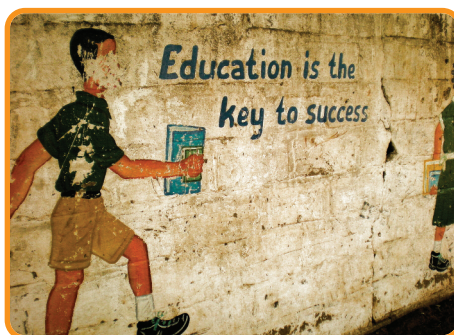

...into the playground as a play worker

...caring for others in nursing

...learning from the past with museum education projects

...around the world with charity work and community projects

Our graduates have gone on to successful careers in many of these areas.
