

Postgraduate Taught Masters course approval deadlines

Postgraduate course development	Final September entry deadlines
New PGT course	2027/28 entry – 12 months prior to implementation
	2028/29 onwards - 18 months prior to implementation
- Course Re-approval (either at SASQC or at the ASQC Academic Course Approval Sub-Committee) - Course Changes approved at SASQC	Varies depending on nature or volume of changes: - Impact on material information or have significant operational implications, including course title change – 1st December of preceding academic year for courses starting in September, otherwise 9 months in advance of the course start date - Do not impact on material information or have significant operational implications – End of February of preceding academic year for courses starting in September, otherwise 6 months in advance of course start date
Semesterisation	December prior to implementation
Introduction of a new mode of study (excluding SW)	12 months prior to implementation
Introduction of a new award within a suite or new pathway
The creation of additional course cohorts (start date additions)
Reinstatement of previously discontinued course
Introduction of a new exit award (not open to applications)
Start date alteration
Introduction of a Sandwich mode (transfer routes and routes open to applications)	February prior to implementation