

Undergraduate course approval deadlines

Undergraduate Course Development	Final September entry deadlines
New UG course	2 years in advance of intake
- Course Re-approval (either at SASQC or at the ASQC Academic Course Approval Sub-Committee) - Course changes approved at SASQC	Varies depending on nature or volume of changes: Impact on material information or have significant operational implications, including course title change – 1st December of preceding academic year for courses starting in September, otherwise 9 months in advance of the course start date
	Do not impact on material information or have significant operational implications – End of February of preceding academic year for courses starting in September, otherwise 6 months in advance of course start date
Semesterisation	December prior to implementation
Introduction of a new award within a suite or new pathway	14 months prior to implementation
Introduction of a new mode of study (excluding Sandwich course)	12 months prior to implementation
The creation of additional course cohorts (start date additions)
Reinstatement of previously discontinued course
Start date alteration
Introduction of a Sandwich mode (transfer routes and routes open to applications)	February prior to implementation