Essential guide to student accommodation

Where to live at NTU

Nottingham Trent
University

Your home away from home

University accommodation is going to be a big part of your new life as a student — and especially if it's the first time you've ever lived away from home. It's an experience that can open doors to a whole host of new friendships and opportunities.

Because of that, we know you'll really want your accommodation to feel like a proper home away from home. We offer a whole range of options — including en suite, shared and studio rooms — which all provide you with a safe, secure and comfy place to call your own.

We provide student accommodation exclusively for NTU students, including new and returning undergraduates, mature and postgraduate students, and those studying at both the Confetti Institute of Creative Technologies and NTU in Mansfield.

Our Accommodation team is here to make your transition from home to university life as easy as possible. We'll help you at every stage of the process — from your initial research, to selecting and booking your room, right through to moving in. From there, we'll also support you throughout your time living in our accommodation, helping out however and wherever we can.

This guide has been designed to give you an idea of the accommodation that's available at NTU, and to help you find the place that's right for you.

For other accommodation and advice please visit our website.

"Choosing a university and where you want to live is a really big decision, so make sure you look into the different accommodation options. No matter where you stay, I'm sure you'll have a brilliant time and make amazing memories in the next chapter of your life — just like I have!"

Amy Jones, BA (Hons) Primary Education

Why choose to live in halls?

Living in NTU's halls of residence, you can count on a great range of benefits:

Your halls community

This is where your student experience really starts – the place you'll make lasting friends and memories as you settle into your new life.

When you move in, check out the programme of events – from trips to local events to games nights in the common room, you'll have plenty of opportunities to get yourself familiar with the hall's community.

Bills – inclusive

Free Wi-Fi

All our residences offer free Wi-Fi to keep you connected and help with your studies.

Utilities and insurance included

There's no need to worry about bills. Your heating, water and electricity bills are all included in your rent, and you also get free basic contents insurance.

Free travel pass in selected halls

Students who book into The Maltings or Meridian Court will be eligible for a free bus pass.

Safety and security

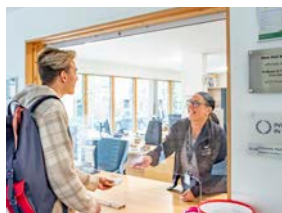

Excellent security

Our residences include a range of security measures for your peace of mind, such as CCTV, door entry systems, and on-site or on-call security staff.

Support

As a resident, you'll have easy access to all our amazing support services.

We have a University Warden Service, providing out-of-hours wellbeing support and Student Accommodation Support Officers, providing guidance in resolving accommodation issues and signposting to other services. They have extended availability and can be contacted into the evenings and at weekends.

Types of accommodation

Our residences offer a range of different rooms, with options to suit every budget.

While there are some minor variations, we'll provide as standard:

- a bed and mattress
- curtains / blinds
- a wardrobe
- a chest of drawers
- a study desk and chair

Kitchens are equipped with:

- an electric cooker
- a fridge / freezer
- a microwave
- a kettle and toaster

Each location also has its own dedicated laundry facilities including ironing boards.

En suite rooms

As well as a bedroom, our en suite rooms give you the option of having your very own bathroom facilities. These rooms come with access to a shared kitchen.

Shared bathroom facilities

With these rooms, you'll have your own bedroom, access to shared bathroom facilities, and the use of a shared kitchen.

Studio room

Our studio flats are for independent living with a shower room, and are ideal if you prefer your own space. They also include a small kitchen and sitting area, as well as a bed, desk and storage.

Twin rooms

Our twin rooms give you the option of sharing your bedroom and bathroom facilities with one other person. Please note that these rooms need to be requested via the Accommodation team, as supply is limited.

Shared houses

Our shared houses allow you to live with other students. You'll have your own bedroom with shared bathroom facilities, plus access to a shared kitchen and living area. Shared houses are often great choices for postgraduate, returning or mature students.

Catering

All our accommodation, including halls, are self catered. Food outlets are available on all campuses and across the surrounding areas. You can pay for catering using your student card, just top-up online.

Specific requirements

Postgraduate or mature student accommodation

Many of our residences offer flats that are set aside for postgraduate and mature students. These give you the option to live with students who are studying at the same level as you.

Single-sex accommodation

Most of our flats are mixed gender. However, we do also provide single-sex accommodation, so email us to check for availability. You might also be interested in our range of studio residences.

Need an accessible room?

We have a wide range of accessible accommodation, and we're eager to support students with specific requirements and / or medical conditions. If you have a condition that requires daily or 24-hour personal care, we can provide a room for your personal carer / assistant under the same terms and conditions as other residents. Contact our team, who can help you find the perfect accommodation for your requirements.

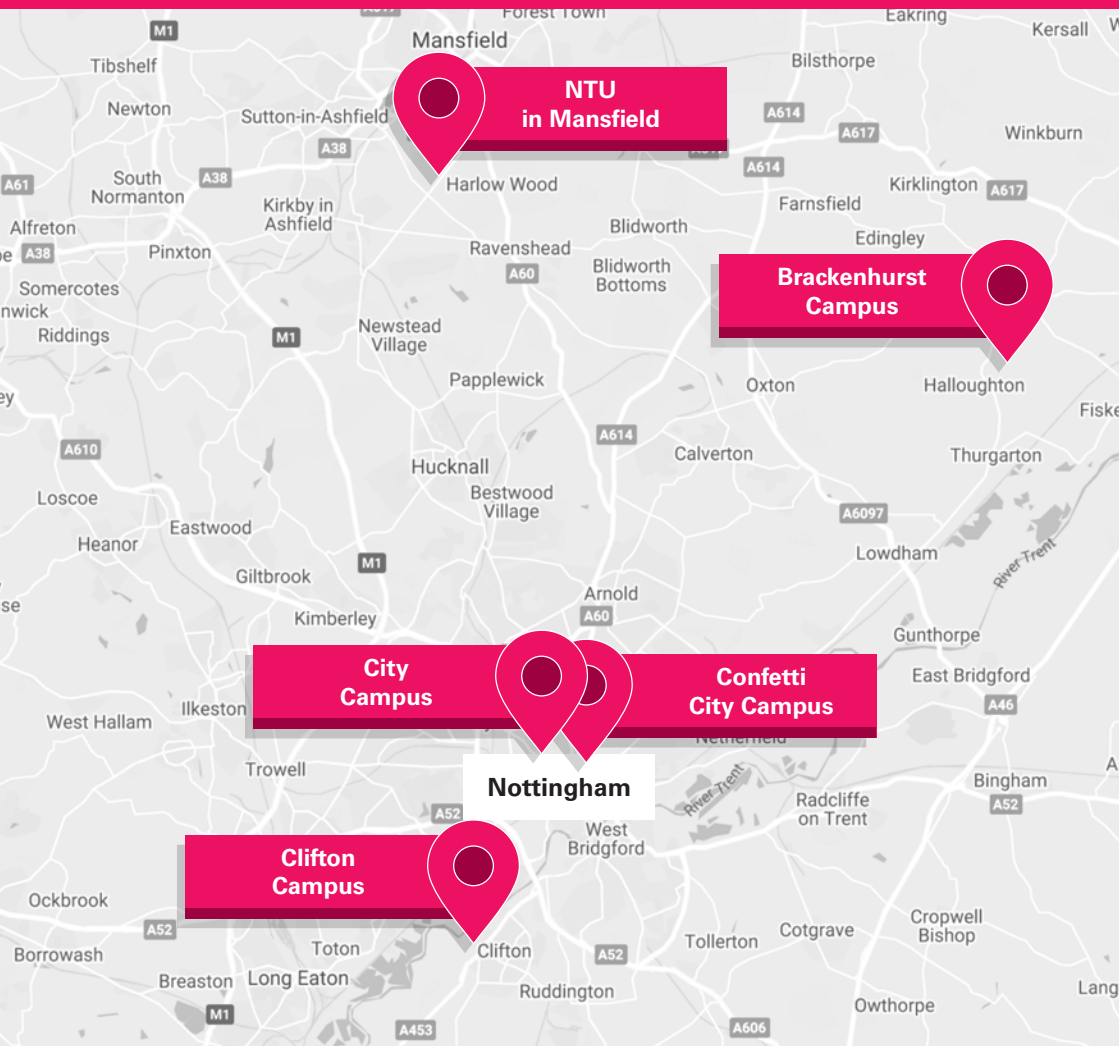

Campus locations

Located across Nottinghamshire, each one of our campuses has been uniquely developed for the needs of our student community.

There's our central City Campus in the bustling heart of Nottingham; the idyllic countryside estate of Brackenhurst; and our dedicated student village at the Clifton Campus. Most recently, our new developments include the Confetti Institute of Creative Technology — based in Nottingham's Creative Quarter — and NTU in Mansfield.

NTU accommodation is available at the City Campus (and its surrounding area), Clifton Campus, Brackenhurst Campus and Mansfield.

City Campus and surrounding area

Our City Campus is located in the heart of Nottingham, only a five-minute walk from the very best of the city's shopping, eating, drinking, culture and nightlife.

In the Nottingham city area, we have five halls located on the City Campus, and five off-campus halls which are only a short walk or bus ride away. For students staying at The Maltings or Meridian Court we'll provide you with a free bus pass.

Even if you're studying at our Confetti, Clifton, Mansfield or Brackenhurst campuses, basing yourself on or around the City Campus could still be the ideal option for you. Nottingham offers great transport links and regular buses that run between our campuses, and you can purchase a discounted travel pass through Nottingham City Transport.

Find out more about our City Campus at ntu.ac.uk/city-campus

Brackenhurst Campus

Our Brackenhurst Campus is located around 14 miles from Nottingham city centre, and is only a short walk or bus journey to the town of Southwell – a picturesque market town that hosts some of the county's best pubs, restaurants and shops. On campus, you'll find everything you could need on your doorstep – your classrooms, the library, a great campus shop, The Orangery café, and the famous Brack Bar.

Typically, students studying our animal, rural and environmental courses choose to live in our Brackenhurst residences. A regular bus service runs between Southwell, Brackenhurst and Nottingham throughout the week, and you can purchase a discounted travel pass through Nottingham City Transport.

Find out more about our Brackenhurst Campus at ntu.ac.uk/brackenhurst-campus

Clifton Campus

Our Clifton Campus is located four miles south of Nottingham city centre. Both halls of residence here are located just minutes away from the on-campus student bar, gym and lecture theatres, making them the perfect place to call home if you're studying at Clifton. For our postgraduate and mature students, there's also the option of the College Drive houses. There are regular buses that run between the Clifton Campus and the city, and the journey takes around 25 minutes.

Find out more about our Clifton Campus at ntu.ac.uk/clifton-campus

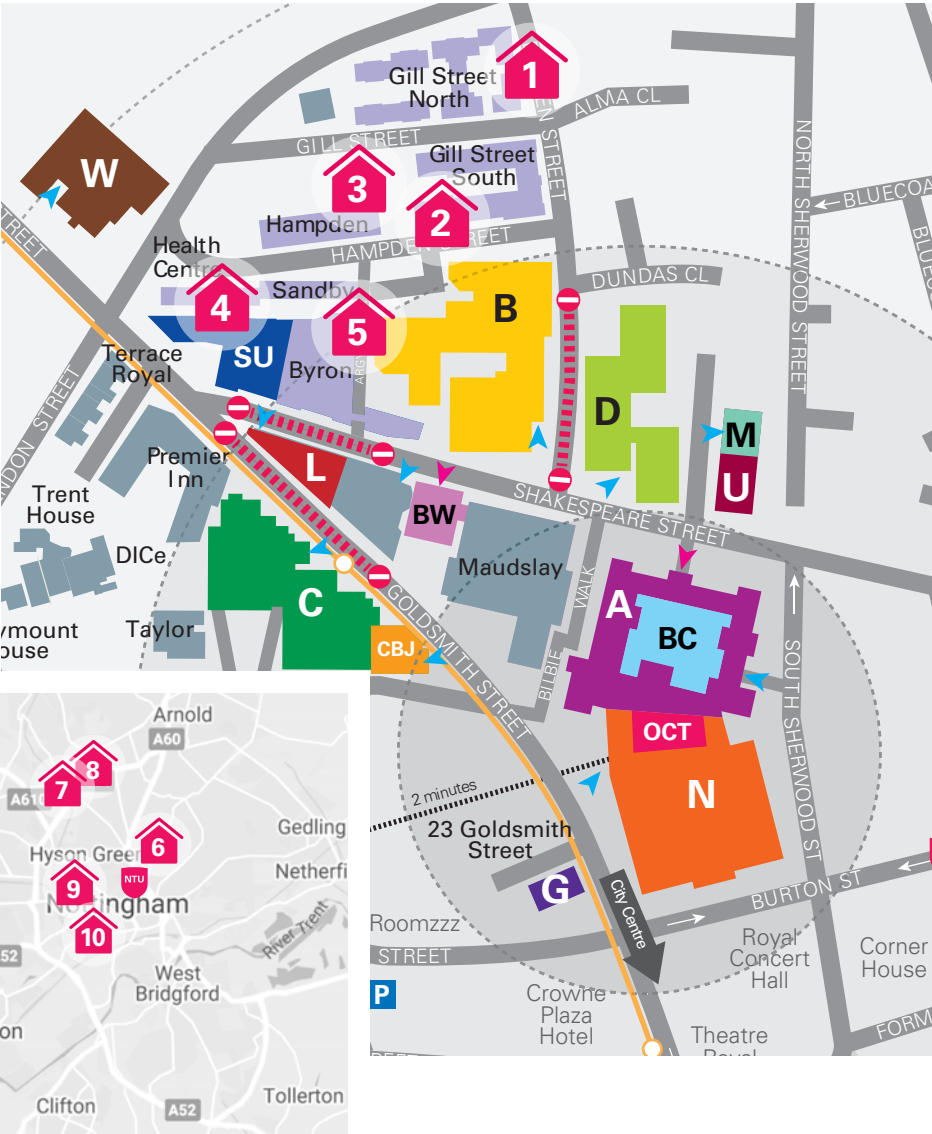

NTU in Mansfield

NTU in Mansfield is ideal if you want a different route into higher education or a taster for uni life. NTU in Mansfield is based at Vision West Nottinghamshire College, approximately 14 miles north of Nottingham and easily reached by car, train and bus.

The postcode for NTU in Mansfield is NG18 5BH. There is ample parking on-site. And nearer to home, Mansfield is on your doorstep – shops, pubs, restaurants, and stunning views that stretch for miles. Live near campus in our NTU in Mansfield shared houses or in the city centre – you'll always have the best of both worlds.

How to book

Accommodation booking system goes live

Deadline for your course offer (excluding UCAS Extra offers)

Deadline for your course offer (including UCAS Extra offers)

Step 1

Look at your options

You should spend some time looking through your options. Work out what your budget is, the best location for you to get where you need to be, and anything else that may be important for your living space.

Step 2

Make a shortlist

Make a list of your favourite halls of residence with pros and cons.

Step 3

Make NTU your firm (first) choice.

To book NTU accommodation you will need to make us your firm – first choice on UCAS Track or accept your offer on our applicant portal if you applied directly.

Step 4

Get your log in details

Once you have made NTU your firm choice you will be sent instructions for logging into the system. If you have any questions contact us ahead of the launch date so we can assist.

Step 5

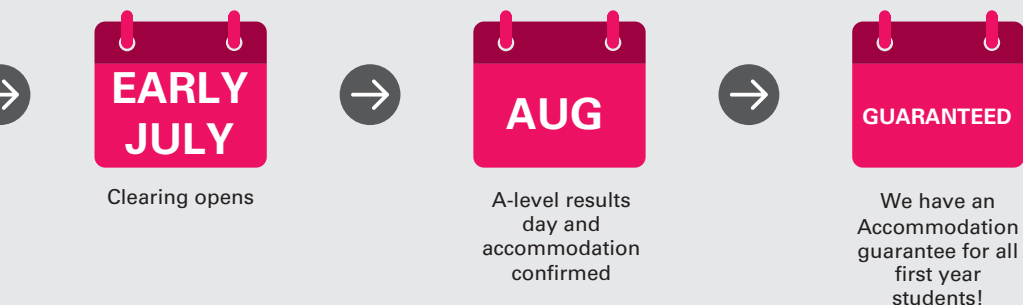

Wait for bookings to go live

Bookings typically launch in March. you will receive a reminder email from NTU when the date is approaching.

Step 6

Log in to the booking system

Log into the system and check that your details are correct. You can also let us know if you have a health condition or disability that will affect which accommodation you need.

Step 7

Choose your room

Once you have logged in you will be able to see room availability. The system will give you lots of information about each residence. For example: who manages it, how many floors it has, and the different room types available. You can filter the options to find the room you would like to reserve.

Step 8

Secure your booking

Once you are happy with the room you have picked you will need to complete the booking. The steps depend on the residence you have selected. This will likely include:

- paying a deposit
- signing a contract
- confirming how you'll pay rent
- providing guarantor details

Not all residences required all steps – this will be made clear when you're selecting a room.

Visit ntu.ac.uk/accommodation for more information about the booking process.

Frequently asked questions

Accommodation fees, deposits and payments

Q: What length of contract do I need?

A: 44 weeks is suitable for the majority of students. This allows you to keep the room until the summer without having to vacate over the winter break. We also have 51 week contracts which are aimed at students needing to stay all year round such as those on postgraduate course or international students unable to return home over the summer.

Q: When do I pay for my accommodation fees?

A: You will pay your accommodation fees in three termly instalments, to coincide with loan payments. Typically, these are in September, January and April.

Q: If I need to pay a deposit, will I get this back?

A: If you are asked to pay a deposit it will be refunded at the end of your tenancy agreement — providing that there are no damages or outstanding rent.

Q: It's asking me to set up a payment plan but I haven't set up my student account yet — what should I do?

A: We recommend you set up the payment plan to secure your booking. You can change your payment details later in the year once your student account has been set up, ahead of your first instalment.

Q: What is your cancellation policy?

A: Our cancellation policy can be found online at ntu.ac.uk/accommodation

Q: Who is my landlord?

A: NTU operate several residences including College Drive, Bramley Cottages and Brackenhurst Halls. If you book this accommodation NTU is your landlord. This means your accommodation requirements when in residence will be dealt with by the NTU Accommodation team.

Other residences are operated by University Partnerships Programme (UPP) – NTU's affiliate accommodation partner. When in residence they will be your landlord and will deal with your accommodation requirements. Full contact details will be provided to you in your accommodation handbook.

Accommodation at our Mansfield Campus is managed via a letting agent - the landlord will be stated on your accommodation contract. NTU is the landlord for some Mansfield properties.

Booking queries

Q: Do you offer catered accommodation?

A: All our halls are self-catered. You can buy food from NTU catering outlets on campus.

Q: What is your allocation policy?

A: Our booking system is self-allocated. You log in with your student ID and it will recognise your age and level of study, and then show you suitable accommodation. You will be able to select and book your room from a list of available options.

Q: When do I need to book accommodation?

A: You should book accommodation even if you have a conditional offer, providing you have made us your first choice (firm) university. Once your offer has been made unconditional, you will receive an email asking you to log in and complete your booking (sign the contract and set up a payment plan).

Q: I have an insurance offer — can I still book?

A: If you have NTU as your Insurance choice, you will need to apply for accommodation on or after A-level results day, when you know if you'll be studying at NTU.
